LUND UNIVERSITY | SWEDEN

- Master of Laws in European Business Law
- 2 years, full-time, 120 ECTS credits; or 1 year, full-time, 60 ECTS credits
- Faculty of Law
- Lund Campus Faculty of Law
- Application deadline: January 2024
- Programme start: August 2024

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

The oldest European economic law programme in Scandinavia at the highest ranked law faculty in the Nordic countries provides an in-depth understanding of the practical and theoretical aspects of European economic law, and the operation of the rules of the European market in a global context.

The programme provides an excellent research-based foundation for understanding the EU constitutional framework and the most important European rules governing how businesses operate in Europe. The programme is directed and taught by expert teachers from Lund University, supported by leading academics from other top-ranked universities, and with input from practitioners in key EU institutions, such as the EU Commission or the Court of Justice of the EU, national authorities and leading law firms.

Students can choose between pursuing a one- or a two-year programme. During the second year, students have extensive possibilities to tailor their studies in order to suit their interests and future career ambitions.

PROGRAMME MODULES/COURSES

Semester 1: EU Constitutional Law (12 credits); Business Negotiations (3 credits); Internal Market Law (12 credits); Argumentation and Methodology (3 credits). Semester 2: EU Competition Law (15 credits). Students who do the one-year Master's will in addition do a Master's Thesis (15 credits); students taking a two-year Master's will take an elective course (15 credits). Semester 3: Elective courses (30 credits) Semester 4: Master's Thesis (30 credits).

Elective courses for the two-year programme

Students have a very wide range of courses to choose from, in areas such as competition and internal market law, trade law, mergers and acquisitions law, copyright law, patent law, big data law, corporate social responsibility and labour law. Students also have the opportunity to be selected to represent Lund in the European Law Moot Court Competition or to conduct an internship at a law firm or public authority.

CAREER PROSPECTS

With a unique combination of traditional legal studies in EU business law (e.g. the law of the internal market, competition law and constitutional law of the EU) and economic- and trade-related issues, this programme is an ideal preparation for a career within private practice, national/EU institutions, or legal research. It also provides an excellent basis for students interested in pursuing an academic career.

“It was a very nice programme and it was definitely one of the best experiences I have ever had as a student. The teachers, the classmates and the courses all made my Master's unforgettable. The courses were absolutely amazing and contributed drastically to my knowledge and professional skills. One of the best experiences for me was the European Law Moot Court Competition course. We went to the final in Luxembourg and I happened to plead in the Court of Justice in front of the actual judges and advocate generals, which was incredible.”

Anna Zemskova from Russia

- Programme-specific supporting documents: When applying for the LL.M Programme in International Human Rights Law, you must also submit a statement of purpose, a CV, and two letters of recommendation with your application.
